Re: Steeger v. JMS Cleaning Services, Inc., 1:17-cv-08013 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

I write in response to the Court's order, dated August 15, 2018 [Dkt. # 29], in which Your Honor ordered me to show cause why certificates of attendance for CLE in ethics and professionalism were not timely filed by August 14, 2018.

Please find attached hereto certificates of attendance for four (4) credits timely earned on July 29, 2018. The courses completed are: (1) Legal Ethics Relating to Social Media – 1 Credit; Identifying and Avoiding Social Media Traps for Lawyers – 1.5 Credits; and (3) Ethics of Social Media: What Attorneys Need to Know – 1.5 Credits.

My sincerest apologies for filing these certificates one-day past deadline. This was administrative oversight. While I calendared the deadline to complete the CLE courses; I unfortunately mis-calendared the deadline to file the certificates with the Court.

Respectfully Submitted,
